INTRODUCTION

This document identifies certain plan provisions which may exclude, limit, reduce, modify or terminate plan coverage. This information is provided to you prior to enrollment to help you make an informed health care coverage decision, and to help meet state pre-enrollment disclosure requirements.

The document is for informational purposes only. Information relating to employer-funded, customized or state-mandated plans may differ. While every effort has been made to provide the most accurate and up-to-date information, it is not intended to be a full description of coverage, does not constitute a contract, and will be updated periodically without notice. Benefit, coverage, and eligibility determinations will be based on the terms and conditions of the Contract.

The following terms have the meaning indicated below when used within this document:

"Covered Person" means an employee or dependent covered by the Contract.

"Contract" means the legal agreement between us and the Contractholder. The Contract may also be known as a policy or master group contract.

"Contractholder" means the legal entity identified as the policyholder or group plan sponsor on the face page of the Contract who establishes, sponsors and endorses an employee benefit plan for insurance or health care coverage.

Please contact your Sales Agent if you need further assistance regarding the information presented here or are interested in specific plan information. Note information is also available regarding any standardized health plans which your state may require us to offer.

The agent does not have the authority to waive a complete answer to any question, determine coverage or insurability, alter any Contract, bind the insuring or offering entity by making any promise or representation, or waive any other rights or requirements of the insuring or offering entity.

ENROLLMENT

Each employee must complete the enrollment process to enroll for coverage under the Contract for themselves and their eligible dependents, if any.

We reserve the right to require an eligible employee and/or eligible dependent to submit evidence of health status. No eligible employee or eligible dependent will be refused enrollment or charged a different premium than other group members based on health status-related factors. Health status will not be used to determine the premium rates for products offered through a small employer group health plan. We will not use health status-related factors to decline medical coverage to an eligible employee or eligible dependent. We will administer this provision in a non-discriminatory manner.

Late applicant means an employee or dependent who requests enrollment for coverage under the Contract more than 31 days after his/her eligibility date, later than the time period specified in the "Special enrollment" provision, or after the open enrollment period.

Open enrollment period means no less than a 31-day period of time, occurring annually for the group, during which employees have an opportunity to enroll themselves and their eligible dependents for coverage under Contract.

Special enrollment

Special enrollment is available if the following apply:

- You have a change in family status due to:
 - Marriage;
 - Divorce;
 - A Qualified Medical Child Support Order (QMCSO);
 - A National Medical Support Notice (NMSN);
 - The birth of a natural born child; or
 - The adoption of a child or placement of a child with the employee for the purpose of adoption; and
 - You enroll within 31 days after the special enrollment date; or
- You are an employee or dependent eligible for coverage under the Contract, and:
 - You previously declined enrollment stating you were covered under another group health plan or other health insurance coverage; and
 - Loss of eligibility of such other coverage occurs, regardless of whether you are eligible for, or elect COBRA; and
 - You enroll within 31 days after the special enrollment date.
- Loss of eligibility of other coverage includes, but is not limited to:
 - Termination of employment or eligibility;
 - Reduction in number of hours of employment;
 - Divorce, legal separation or death of a spouse;
 - Loss of dependent eligibility, such as attainment of the limiting age;
 - Termination of your employer's contribution for the coverage;
 - Loss of individual HMO coverage because you no longer reside, live or work in the service area;
 - Loss of group HMO coverage because you no longer reside, live or work in the service area, and no other benefit package is available;

- The plan no longer offers benefits to a class of similarly situated individuals; or
- You had COBRA continuation coverage under another plan at the time of eligibility, and:
 - Such coverage has since been exhausted; and
 - You stated at the time of the initial enrollment that coverage under COBRA was your reason for declining enrollment; and
 - You enroll within 31 days after the special enrollment date; or
- You were covered under an alternate plan provided by the employer that terminates, and:
 - You are replacing coverage with the Contract; and
 - You enroll within 31 days after the special enrollment date; or
- You are an employee or dependent eligible for coverage under the Contract, and:
 - Your Medicaid coverage or your Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) coverage terminated as a result of loss of eligibility; and
 - You enroll within 60 days after the special enrollment date; or
- You are an employee or dependent eligible for coverage under the Contract, and
 - You become eligible for a premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP; and
 - You enroll within 60 days after the special enrollment date.

Dependent special enrollment

The dependent special enrollment is the time period specified in the "Special enrollment" provision.

If dependent coverage is available under the employer's Contract or added to the Contract, an employee who is a Covered Person can enroll eligible dependents during the applicable special enrollment. An employee, who is otherwise eligible for coverage and had waived coverage under the Contract when eligible, can enroll himself/herself and eligible dependents during the special enrollment. The employee and/or dependent enrolling within the time period specified in the "Special enrollment" provision after the special enrollment date will not be considered a late applicant.

The employee and/or dependent are a late applicant if enrolled later than the time period specified in the "Special enrollment" provision after the special enrollment date. A late applicant must wait to enroll for coverage during the open enrollment period.

HIGH DEDUCTIBLE HEALTH PLAN REQUIREMENT

The IRS has certain requirements that a High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) must meet in order for members to be eligible for a Health Savings Account (HSA). One requirement is that the deductible amount must not be lower than the "minimum annual deductible" as defined by the IRS. Each year, the IRS reviews the deductible amounts to determine if the minimum annual deductible should be increased.

If you have an HDHP and the deductible amount of your HDHP does not satisfy the IRS minimum annual deductible requirement, you will be required to move to a valid deductible amount. For most groups, this deductible change will happen on your next renewal date. However, the deductible adjustment may be applied on your initial effective date, if that is required in order to comply with IRS regulations.

PREAUTHORIZATION REQUIREMENTS FOR COVERAGE

Humana requires preauthorization for some services and procedures your physician or other provider may recommend for you. Humana does this solely to determine whether the service or procedure qualifies for payment under your benefit plan. You and your health care provider decide whether you should have such services or procedures. Humana's preauthorization determination relates solely to payment by Humana. To find a list of these services and supplies, please visit our Website at www.humana.com or call Customer Service. Failure to obtain necessary preauthorization when required may result in a reduction of otherwise payable benefits.

MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE FEE

We use fee schedules to pay providers for your coverage based on the criteria set forth in the following maximum allowable fee definition.

Maximum allowable fee for a covered expense, other than emergency care services provided by non-network providers in a hospital's emergency department, is the lesser of:

- The fee charged by the provider for the services;
- The fee that has been negotiated with the provider whether directly or through one or more intermediaries or shared savings contracts for the services;
- The fee established by us by comparing rates from one or more regional or national databases or schedules for the same or similar services from a geographical area determined by us;
- The fee based upon rates negotiated by us or other payors with one or more network providers in a geographic area determined by us for the same or similar services;
- The fee based upon the provider's cost for providing the same or similar services as reported by such provider in its most recent publicly available Medicare cost report submitted to the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) annually; or
- The fee based on a percentage determined by us of the fee Medicare allows for the same or similar services provided in the same geographic area.

Maximum allowable fee for a covered expense for emergency care services provided by non-network providers in a hospital's emergency department is an amount equal to the greatest of:

- The fee negotiated with network providers;
- The fee calculated using the same method to determine maximum allowable fee for a covered expense, other than emergency care services provided by non-network provider services; or
- The fee paid by Medicare for the same services.

The bill you receive for services from non-network providers may be significantly higher than the maximum allowable fee. In addition to deductibles, copayments and coinsurance, you are responsible for the difference between the maximum allowable fee and the amount the provider bills you for the services. Any amount you pay to the provider in excess of the maximum allowable fee will not apply to your out-of-pocket limit or deductible.

MODIFICATION OF COVERAGE

The Contract may be modified by us, upon renewal of the Contract, as permitted by state and federal law. A large employer Contractholder will be notified in writing or electronically at least 31 days prior to the effective date of the change. A small employer Contractholder will be notified in writing or electronically at least 60 days prior to the effective date of the change.

The Contract may be modified by agreement between us and the Contractholder without the consent of any Covered Person or any beneficiary. No modification will be valid unless approved by our President, Secretary or Vice-President. The approval must be endorsed on or attached to the Contract. No agent has authority to modify the Contract, waive any of the Contract provisions, extend the time of premium payment, or bind us by making any promise or representation.

Corrections due to clerical errors or clarifications that do not change benefits are not modifications of the Contract and may be made by us at any time without prior consent of, or notice to, the Contractholder.

CONTRACTHOLDER RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to responsibilities outlined in the Contract, the Contractholder is responsible for:

- Collection of premium; and
- Distributing and providing Covered Persons access to:
 - Benefit plan documents and the Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC);
 - Renewal notices and Contract modification information;
 - Discontinuance notices; and
 - Information regarding continuation rights.

No Contractholder has the power to change or waive any provision of the Contract.

RENEWAL OR TERMINATION OF COVERAGE

The Contractholder may terminate the Contract by giving written notice to us no later than 31 days prior to the desired termination date.

The Contractholder may terminate the coverage provided under any provision of the Contract, with our consent, by giving written notice to us as of a date mutually agreeable to the Contractholder and us.

The Contractholder may terminate an eligible class of Covered Persons, if applicable, from the group plan, with our consent, as of a date mutually agreeable to the Contractholder and us. Termination will occur only with respect to Covered Persons included in the terminated class.

We may terminate the Contract, as allowed by applicable law, by giving written notice to the Contractholder. Written notice will be mailed no later than 31 days prior to the termination date, except as otherwise outlined below.

We may refuse to renew or we may terminate the Contract if:

- The Contractholder fails to pay us any premium due, except coverage will continue during the grace period.
- The Contractholder has failed to comply with our minimum, participation or contribution requirements, as specified in the Employer Group Application.
- The Contractholder is not an employer.
- For HMO and POS plans, the group has relocated outside of the service area.
- The Contractholder has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact. We may terminate the Contract after giving 30 day advance written notice to the Contractholder for instances of fraud or intentional misrepresentation of a material fact.
- We decide to discontinue offering a particular group health Contract:
 - Notice of such discontinuation will be provided at least 90 days prior to the date of discontinuation. The Contractholder is responsible for distributing and providing Covered Persons access to the notice; and
 - The Contractholder will be given the option to purchase all (or in the case of a large employer, any) other group Contract providing medical benefits that is being offered by us at such time.
- We cease to do business in either the small employer or the large employer group medical market, as applicable and as allowed by the state requirements. If we cease doing business in the small employer or the large employer group market, notice for the Contractholders, Covered Persons and the Commissioner of Insurance will be provided at least 180 days prior to the date of discontinuation of such coverage. The Contractholder is responsible for distributing and providing Covered Persons access to the notice.

Termination of a Covered Person's coverage under a group Contract will occur for the following reasons:

- The group Contract terminates;
- Premium was due to us and not received by us;
- The Covered Person no longer meets the eligibility requirements of the plan. You and the Contractholder are responsible to notify us of any change in eligibility, including the lack of eligibility of any Covered Person;
- The employee requests termination of coverage for himself/herself or covered dependents; or
- The Covered Person commits fraud or an intentional misrepresentation of a material fact, as determined by us.

We will also terminate your coverage for cause under the following circumstances:

- If you allow an unauthorized person to use your identification card or if you use the identification card of another Covered Person. Under these circumstances, the person who receives the services provided by use of the identification card will be responsible for paying us the maximum allowable fee for those services.
- If you or the Contractholder perpetrate fraud and/or intentional misrepresentation on claims, identification cards or other identification in order to obtain services or a higher level of benefits. This includes, but is not limited to, the fabrication and/or alteration of a claim, identification card or other identification.

FRAUD

Health insurance fraud is a criminal offense that can be prosecuted. Any person(s) who willingly and knowingly engages in an activity intended to defraud us, by filing a claim or form that contains a false or deceptive statement, may be guilty of insurance fraud.

If you commit fraud against us or your employer commits fraud pertaining to you against us, as determined by us, we reserve the right to rescind your coverage after we provide you a 30 calendar day advance written notice that coverage will be rescinded. You have the right to appeal the rescission.
